

The Kindergarten Connection

What Have We Been Learning?

We have been looking for words we know in books and trying to blend sounds together to read words. When reading with your child at home, have your child point out words they know.

We have introduced the Alphafriends for letters k, w, i, l, f, and z. Please help your child look for these letters around them. We have learned the word wall words "to", "my", and "and". We have also introduced the word family >at. For example: cat, bat, hat, and sat. Please practice these words at home.

In writing, your child is continuing to build on writing sentences using words he/she knows.

Your child is continuing to work on recognizing, writing and comparing numbers. We have been making graphs to compare amounts.

As for Science and Social Studies, we have been discussing fire safety, the pumpkin life cycle, and squirrels. Please check the batteries in your smoke alarms and discuss an escape route with your family.
